INFORMATION SECURITY MANAGEMENT POLICY

Our company provides activities related to sales, installation, maintenance, and support with ITserv; cloud technologies, backup and disaster recovery center services, and information technology security solutions. In this context; As a corporation aware of the need to systematically manage and protect information assets and all information related to activities;

• Identifying risk acceptance criteria and risks, developing and implementing controls,

• Continuously monitoring risks by reviewing technological expectations within the scope of services provided,

• Protecting the confidentiality, integrity, and availability aspects of information assets,

• Ensuring the confidentiality of all information assets and stakeholders that are obligated to protect,

• Ensuring the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of information assets,

• Protecting information assets in the physical and electronic environment that affect their operation,

• Reducing information security risks through risk assessment and risk monitoring activities related to information assets,

• Increasing the awareness and consciousness levels of employees regarding information security,

• Ensuring the continuation of all main and supporting business activities with minimal interruption,

• Reducing the impact of information security threats on service continuity and contributing to continuity,

• Aiming to enhance corporate reputation and protect against adverse effects based on information security.

In this regard;

• Making compliance with the Information Security Management System conditions a way of working for our employees,

• Ensuring that all employees receive training compatible with certain third parties' Information Security Management System,

• Fulfilling applicable conditions related to information security and the opportunities and requirements brought by these conditions, and ensuring regular improvement of these conditions,

• Ensuring compliance of our company, its employees, and managers with this system are among our main objectives.

Our Information Security Policy will be reviewed and updated annually or in the event of significant changes related to our company to ensure its suitability, accuracy, and effectiveness, with the participation of management and unit responsible personnel.